

Executive Committee Members (2019)

- 111 votes for Martien Groenen (re-election)
- 62 votes for Sabine Hammer
- 50 votes for Björn Høyheim
- 28 votes for Gary Rohrer
- 67 votes for Chris Tuggle
- 47 votes for John Williams

Future ISAG conferences

The outline of the upcoming conference in Cape Town, South Africa 2021 was presented by members of the Local Organizing Committee.

ISAG has received five expressions of interest for the 2023 conference. James Kijas noted that a vote will be taken on preference from the membership. This is not a binding vote but very important in assisting the EC in making a final decision. Following the conference the EC will reach out to each who submitted an expression of interest to gather additional details.

- Delegates from Daejeon Korea take stage to present. (45 hands raised)
- Delegates from Grodno, Belarus take stage to present (0 hands raised)
- Delegates from Paris, France take stage to present (14 hands raised)
- Delegates from Perugia, Italy to present (24 hands raised)
- Delegates from Sydney, Australia take stage to present. (16 hands raised)

Presentations concluded and Kijas noted that ISAG is lucky to have such a wealth of conference choices.

Preference requested by show of hands and noted above next to each location.

Other business requested and none raised.

Members leaving the EC committee were recognized and thanked. They are James Kijas and Stephen Moore. Kijas reviews Moore's service to ISAG within the EC, thanks him, and asks for a round of applause. Kijas thanks the full EC and meeting organizers in Lleida for their outstanding organization of the Lleida conference.

Looft reviews James service to ISAG and thanks him for his service and is given plaque and engraved pen in thanks for all his work for ISAG.

Invitation to Cape Town, South Africa in 2021.

Meeting adjourned by James Kijas.